In 2022, Taras Zozulinskyy a Ukrainian journalist from the Bureau of Journalistic Investigations "Detectives" was awarded a special Cancer Journalist Grant to help him create a series of videos to describe and show the situation in which cancer patients in Ukraine found themselves since the Russian invasion.

The videos are available below and translated into English.

- Heroes in white coats
- How Ukrainian oncologists fight
- We operated under fire
- Cancer patients and war. Escape from hell to the Lviv clinic